Interactive Walkabout / Installation

LONG COPY

Visionary fashion gurus Carpet Man and Lino Boy bring their inimitable 21st Century couture creations to the catwalk of the pavements.

Having lived through the colossal highs and the bottomless lows of the retail carpet trade, Carpet Man has seen the future of fashion. Drawing on the skills of the family's most resourceful nephew – Lino Boy - Carpet Man and his side kick proudly present their astounding couture creations to the world, fresh from the 'Garden Shed Studio'.

Realising that the demands of the modern day snappy dresser are hopelessly unmet, Carpet Man and Lino Boy have excelled themselves with a bespoke range of multi-functional flooring based clothing - easing the burden of life's little problems with uncanny style. Seeking sales opportunities and valuable market research, the duo hit the streets before their fashion tour of Paris, Milan and Margate..
