The Keystone Kops

Comedy walkabout mime show with sound effects and music

LONG COPY

The Keystone Kops are (as ever) incapable of apprehending their quarry – the elusive escaped convict ‘Slippery Jack’. On the run from law and order with his ball and chain in tow, Jack outwits the Kops with his nimble guile and cunning disguises - who would ever suspect a standard lamp, or that man with the impossible moustache...? Could those Crazy Kops really be even more stupid than they look !

And so the Kops, on their pocket sized police scooter, chase their tails in increasingly bewildering disarray, as Jack escapes their clutches one more time.
